

ISP ONLINE INTERIM MEETING

Dear Plastinators and Friends,

The 1st ISP Online Interim Meeting <http://isp.plastination.org> is one week ahead. The dates will be April 26-28th, 2021. Regarding the contents, the scientific program is attached with three main topics:

1. Fundamentals in Plastination (Monday 26th)
2. Plastination in Education (Tuesday 27th)
3. Plastination and Research (Wednesday 28th)

Sessions will start 10:00am(GMT) 12:00pm Madrid time (GMT+2)

Each topic will have a main lecture and 8 to 10 oral presentations.

Please note that participants must be registered to be added to the Zoom Platform session in order to join the meeting.

Abstracts will be published in the Journal of Plastination, and we offer speakers the possibility to expand their abstract (deadline April 25th) as an original paper for the journal.

On behalf of the organizing committee, I hope we can meet all of you in one week.

Prof. Rafael Latorre
